

	Job Posting Speech Language Pathologist Temporary Contract	Date Posted: March 20, 2024 Closing date: March 28, 2024 Internal/External Posting
---	---	---

1 Temporary Vacancy - Approximately 11 months
Salary Range ($37.504 - $42.023 per hour)
Hours of Work – 37.5 hours per week (1.0 FTE)

The John McGivney Children's Centre provides family-centered paediatric therapy services in the Windsor-Essex County community, enriching the lives of children and youth with special needs by helping them reach their full potential. Reporting to the Program Manager, the Speech Language Pathologist acts as part of a multi-disciplinary team, to provide support to children and youth to develop and maintain functional communication and/or feeding/swallowing skills during daily activities.

The Speech Language Pathologist will provide clinical services within their professional scope of practice including assessment, treatment planning and implementation, and documentation. They will provide comprehensive clinical services within the Centre, as well as within homes and schools in the community. They will collaborate with clients/families and other team members in the planning and delivery of treatment, programs, and services to address the following areas: feeding/swallowing, language, articulation, fluency, and voice. This position may also be involved in providing services within the autism program.

Qualifications:

The candidate must have a Master's degree in Communication Disorders and Sciences, from a recognized university, or equivalent; they must be a licensed and registered member in good standing with CASLPO; and they must demonstrate professional competencies in accordance with college requirements and legislation. Previous experience in a pediatric setting is preferred. The candidate must be able to work successfully in a family-centred, and team environment.

The qualified candidate must have strong interpersonal, communication, and organizational skills; must be able to work independently, and as part of a multi-disciplinary team. The candidate must be available to work flexible hours, as required.

Please submit your resume and cover letter no later than 4:00 p.m. on March 28, 2024 to:

John McGivney Children's Centre
Human Resources Department
hr@jmccentre.ca

JMCC is committed to equity and diversity in the delivery of services and our work environment. Members from equity-seeking groups including Women, Indigenous Persons, Members of Racialized Groups, Persons with Disabilities and Persons of Diverse Gender Identities, Gender Expressions and Sexual Orientations, and groups protected by the Ontario Human Rights Code are encouraged to apply and to self-identify in their resume and/or cover letter. JMCC is committed to a recruitment process and work environment that is inclusive and barrier free. Should interested candidates require accommodations at any time during the recruitment process, please advise us of the nature of the accommodation(s) as soon as possible. ~Helping Abilities Grow~